

Reported Cases of Adult Exposure to Toxic Substances, by Substance, Virginia, 2004

The total number of adult incidence exposures to toxic substances reported during 2004 was 317. Of these exposures, 115 were for coal dust; 89 were for lead; 83 were for asbestos; 12 were for unspecified occupational dusts; 9 were for mercury; 3 were for cadmium; 2 were for silica; 2 were for methemoglobin; 1 was for arsenic; and 1 was for metal dust.